Adults: How does the angry Jesus of today's gospel make you feel? If there is any discomfort, how could that help you broaden your understanding of God?
~Question from Liturgical Press

Children: In today's Gospel, we hear that Jesus gets angry because He was upset with merchants selling in the temple. Jesus was trying to make a point—to keep His Father's house a place of prayer and reverence. How do you show reverence and respect when you enter church?

Beginning with the First Commandment

“I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me.” —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus, which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It’s like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? He knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). Don’t rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Pilgrimage with Janèt Sullivan Whitaker

Since my semi-retirement in 2020, my ministry has focused on composing music for the church, traveling to perform concerts, and leading retreats and missions.

In November 2024, I'll be leading a pilgrimage to Italy. Described as The Great Saints and Flavors of Italy, this adventure is sponsored by Jubilate.me, a company that specializes in sending Catholic music artists on pilgrimages throughout the world.

Pilgrimage dates are November 6 through 16, 2024. Starting in Milan, we will visit Verona, Venice, Pisa, Florence, and Assisi, concluding in Rome and Vatican City. Adding to the richness of this experience will be our delightful spiritual director, The Very Reverend Father Godfrey Mullen, a Benedictine monk of Saint Meinrad rector of St Peter's Cathedral in Belleville, Illinois. In addition to singing, food, friendship, and fun, we will celebrate our faith with daily Eucharist and Liturgy of the Hours. There's something for everyone, including time alone for quiet reflection, and a few concerts along the way. Pilgrims of all singing abilities (or none) are welcome!

Consider the early Christians who travelled together, sang, shared meals, and lived the way of Christ. Won't you join me in a modern-day version of this sacred tradition? I hope you will prayerfully consider making this pilgrimage with me.

LET'S WELCOME EACH OTHER AS SISTERS AND BROTHERS IN CHRIST

*Have you noticed people who don't seem to know other people at Mass?
Do you see the same people at Mass each week
... and not know their names?*

LET'S EACH DO OUR PART TO MAKE SURE OTHERS FEEL SEEN ... KNOWN LOVED AT ST. JOAN

Here are some ideas for making others feel warmly welcomed, that they are members of our St. Joan family:

- Take time to introduce yourself (and your family) to someone new each week
- When you offer someone the Kiss of Peace, ask their name ... then remember it for next time!
- Consider asking another person / couple / family to join you for coffee after Mass
- Enjoy the view from a place in church that is different from you normally sit ... and meet the people that are there!

DON'T BE SHY!

And we will make new friends in the process!

Patrick Leung

I ask to be welcomed into full membership in the Holy Catholic Church through Confirmation. I want to seek to serve Christ with the Global Parish.

Linnea Peterson

Becoming a Catholic is a natural part of my ever deepening relationship with God. In the presence of Jesus I feel grace, guidance and love. I look forward to serving others as directed by the will of God.
