Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Adults: Jesus taught that through His own suffering and death, He would drive out the "ruler of this world" (Satan) and draw everyone to Himself. In what ways are you drawn to Christ?

~Question from Lpi

Children: How do you experience God's goodness in your life? How do you pass on that goodness to others? ~Question from Liturgical Press

FOOD & BABY
SUPPLIES DRIVE

Bring non-perishable food, diapers, or baby formula to any of our weekend Masses - there will be tables outside both main entrances to the Church with smiling volunteers ready to take your donations (grocery store gift cards are also welcome). Food and baby supplies will go to local agencies and local families, so THANK YOU in advance for helping our brothers and sisters in need!

Begins this Friday! *Caring Circles*TM —
Creating hope through our faith

In partnership with St. Isidore's, we are forming a support group for caregivers of loved ones experiencing some form of dementia/Alzheimer's.

We invite all interested to join us at our first *Caring Circles*TM gathering on Friday, March 22, from 11 a.m. to 12 Noon in the Multipurpose Room. A trained facilitator will be present.

Our *Caring Circles*TM for Dementia/Alzheimer's is a place for caregivers to come and receive support, as we navigate this devastating disease that affects so many in our community. *Caring Circles*TM provides a safe space for sharing experiences, exchanging resources, and offering emotional support and aims to enhance the quality of life for those caring for loved ones through understanding, empathy, and education.

ALL ARE WELCOME! You do not need to be a member of either church or Catholic, just someone seeking support for yourself as a caregiver.

St. Joan of Arc *Caring Circles*TM meets in Multipurpose Room on the following days:

+ Fridays from 11 a.m.- 12 noon on March 22, April 12, and April 26

St. Isidore's *Caring Circles*TM meets in their Hospitality Room (across from the school entrance) on:

+ Wednesdays from 7 to 8 p.m. March 20, April 3, and April 17.

We welcome volunteers to assist us, and if you are so called, to offer a friendship to our loved ones. More dates to follow.

For questions, or to offer help please contact Louise Fortayon at fortayon@comcast.net, Mary Greco at mary.greco@comcast.net or Anna Humaydan at annamd@gmail.com

A special thanks to Fran Coit and Suzette Barreras, our long-time proof readers!

During this busy Lenten season, we feature many important announcements, event information, and spiritual reflections. Providentially, we're blessed to have two parishioners who carefully proof read and correct our bulletins and Flocknote announcements: Fran Coit (bulletins) and Suzette Barreras (Flocknote). It's a hidden ministry, so we simply wanted to acknowledge and thank Fran and Suzette for their many years of service—we'll continue to keep them busy!

Upcoming Special Collections

Lent: Catholic Relief Services—Rice Bowls
 March 29 Pontifical Good Friday Collection (Holy Land)*

*Pope Francis has asked the Church to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines and is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. Thank you for your generosity.

Saints and Special Observances

Monday: St. Cyril of Jerusalem, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
 Tuesday: St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary
 Saturday: St. Turibius of Mogrovejo, Bishop

Save the Date: St. Vincent de Paul Bundle

Sunday: April 6-7; Bags distributed Palm Sunday weekend.

“Father, glorify your name”

A middle-aged woman sat on the couch in my parish office and recounted to me a shocking list of terrible calamities in her life: addictions, terminal illnesses, financial loss, broken relationships, and so on. She smiled as she did so. “Please forgive me,” I asked, “but you seem to be smiling as you share this.” She said, “Father John, I am totally overwhelmed, but I’m smiling because I just can’t wait to see what good things God does with this mess.” She expected God would manifest His glory when she most needed it.

This week in the Gospel, God speaks from heaven for the third and final time in Jesus’ earthly ministry. It’s at a tough moment. Gentiles seek Jesus, who announces His terrible suffering, and then boldly prays, “Father, glorify your name!” John then writes: Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it and will glorify it again.” Was the task of drawing the whole non-Jewish world to Himself overwhelming, or was it the terrible specter of crucifixion? Whatever it was, the crushing weight triggers His turning to the Father with an unshakeable expectation of divine glory to burst through, and indeed, it did on Easter Sunday. In our burdens, our greatest strength is to turn to God and boldly ask Him for His glory.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to list out everything which is a burden to you. Write it down. Then add these words: “Father, glorify Your name in all these things!” Put that paper in your pocket or purse when you come to Holy Week liturgies next week. You might smile at the most unlikely times. ~Fr. John Muir ©LPi
