FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Hope

Advent Reflection from: Maurine Behrend

The days are shorter now

Darkness comes sooner and lasts longer

In our part of the world

Yet we know that somewhere on this Earth

Days are lengthening

And the promise of summer is in the air.

So at Advent

We remember the promise of a Savior's coming

The promise of light in a darkened world

The hope that just as the seasons of the earth flow

Year after year with

Warmth and cold

Darkness and light

So the seasons of our lives,

Through the Awesome Grace of God

Adults: What special prayers and traditions do you observe during the season of Advent? Are you going to introduce any new traditions or practices?

Children: This week, the Church observes the First week of Advent. How is your family preparing for Christmas? Do you share special prayers, light candles in an Advent wreath, or use an Advent calendar? If not, there's still time to begin! During Advent, can you set a time in the day aside for special prayers?

Advent Communal Reconciliation ServiceWednesday, December 6 at 7 p.m.

Advent is a beautiful season, when we prepare to welcome the Christ child. Many of us observe Advent with special prayers and traditions, like lighting candles on an Advent wreath, setting up a crèche or meditating on the daily readings.

We are also encouraged to do a little introspection during this time of preparation. If you haven't been to Reconciliation in a while, and want to experience the grace and peace in this healing sacrament, please join us for our Advent Communal Reconciliation Service on Wednesday, December 6 at 7 p.m.

Keeping Watch

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? "Watch, therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep." Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockcrow, a good thing?

Of course it is, but the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. Our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes, but we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, to ~Fr. John Muir ©LPI

"If the Word of God is living and powerful, and if the Lord does all things whatsoever He wills; if He said, "Let there be light", and it happened; if He said, "let there be a firmament", and it happened; ...if finally the Word of God Himself willingly became man and made flesh for Himself out of the most pure and undefiled blood of the holy and ever Virgin, why should He not be capable of making bread His Body and wine and water His Blood?... God said, "This is my Body", and "This is my Blood.""

Gospel Reading

Mark 13:33-37

Jesus warns his disciples to be watchful so that they will be ready when the Son of Man comes.

Family Connection

In family life, we try to prepare ourselves for many future things: our next vacation, our children's education, our retirement. We are careful not to allow ourselves to be caught by surprise so that we can handle any challenges our family may face. Today's Gospel reminds us that we are called to be just as attentive and alert to the coming of the Son of Man so that it will not catch us unprepared. This means attending to our family's spiritual life as carefully as we attend to other important family matters.

As you gather as a family, talk about a time when you received surprise visitors at your house, perhaps a neighbor who stopped by or a relative who arrived unannounced. Was your household prepared to receive this unannounced guest? What might your family have done differently if you knew ahead of time that this visitor was going to arrive? Jesus told his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return, except the Father. Read with your family what Jesus told his disciples in today's Gospel, Mark 13:33-37.

During Advent, we not only prepare ourselves to celebrate the birth of Jesus, we also check to see if we are doing all the things that will keep us ready to receive Jesus when he comes again. Talk about how your family can recommit to daily prayer, reading Scripture, and staying faithful to God's commandments. Pray together that through this Advent season your family will be more prepared to receive Jesus when he comes again. Read as a concluding prayer Paul's word to the Corinthians found in today's second reading, 1 Corinthians 1:3-9, or pray the Lord's Prayer.
