Adults: John the Baptist was the herald of Christ, preparing people for the coming the light. Who are the people or prophets that speak or have spoken to you about Christ? Are you a herald to others?

Children: Today, we hear that John the Baptist came to "testify" or "tell the truth" about the light—Jesus Christ. In other words, John wants to give people a "heads up" to prepare for someone greater than himself! Who are the people that speak to you about Jesus?

John the Baptist announces Christ

Why do we believe in Jesus and the Catholic Church? Why should we continue to do so? We've never seen Him face-to-face (at least not most of us, I assume). Most of us have never had mystical visions of angels or saints. We live in the same world as our atheist and secularists friends. Why do we believe in Christ if we've never seen Him?

The simple, symbolic answer the Gospel presents to us this week might surprise us: we believe because of John the Baptist. Early in John's Gospel we hear: "There was a man sent from God, his name was John. He came for testimony, to bear witness to the light, that all might believe through him." The Baptist powerfully announces Jesus. This is a historical fact, and it is also now a pattern at work in our lives.

John the Baptist stands for the entirety of the old covenant, everything entrusted to the Jewish people. Yet he prophetically opens the door to something entirely new in Jesus, to the revival and fulfillment of God's promises. In every generation, and in every human life, God continues to do this. He has done it through people named Augustine, Francis, Catherine, Theresa, and countless others. In my life, the Baptist's spirit has come through persons named Eric, Paul, Mary, and Ron. I challenge you to name at least three people through whom God has announced the coming of Jesus in your life. Consciously thank God for their testimony, and let's commit ourselves to listening to the spirit of John the Baptist testify again this week so that we might more strongly believe in the light. ~ Fr. John Muir @LPi

Our Winter Bible Study: Revelation

During our recent studies about the Eucharist, the Book of Revelation has been referenced so often that we decided we need to delve into this fascinating and misunderstood book of the Bible.

Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation. Yet relatively few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing eleven-session study program that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of Heaven. In this study, we will pull back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation, discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean, see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times" and explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, His spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass.

Our Revelation study will begin on Thursday, January 11 and will run through Wednesday, March 27. You can always order a workbook on your own at the link above; but, if you'd like Rosemarie to order one for you (to save tax and shipping), please be sure to let her know by Wednesday, December 13: RMckenney@sjasr.org.
