Installation Mass for Fr. Johnson this Sunday at 10 a.m.

We invite you to attend a special Installation Mass for Fr. Johnson Abraham on Sunday, January 7 at the 10 a.m. Mass.

Fr. Mark Wiesner from the Catholic Community of Pleasanton will be the main celebrant. Light refreshments to follow in the statue side plaza.

Annual Santo Niño Mass: this Sunday, January 7, 12 Noon

Please join us at our annual Santo Niño Mass on Sunday, January 7, 2024 at the Noon Mass. After Mass, Fr. Johnson will bless your Santo Niño statues.

The Epiphany of the Lord

A stranger in a foreign land, I was exhausted and homesick as my summer Spanish immersion ended in Guatemala. The rusty minivan arriving outside my small residence filled me with joyful hope. I was flying home to the U.S. and would be, at long last, completely happy, or so I thought. After about half an hour of being home, I thought to myself, “This place is boring. I want to go somewhere.” So, I hopped in my car and left to see my friends. As I drove, I wistfully wondered, “Where am I truly at home?”

The feast of Epiphany has a lot to do with our notion of home. Where is our origin? Where are we going? When is our wandering done? Saint Matthew tells us of the Magi, “They were overjoyed at seeing the star.” This star will bring them home, to a place where their questing will end, and they will be satisfied. Their real home is neither in the East nor in the earthly Jerusalem. Somehow, their home is wherever this Boy and His parents are.

If you’re a teenager or older, you probably know by now that every physical home we have is temporary. So, we look up at the countless stars in our proverbial skies: things which bedazzle and beckon us to follow toward peace. The Gospel invites us to behold that — at long last — God has sent us a star to follow home, one that whispers, “Follow me! I will take you home!” Perhaps that star is your spouse, a friend, an opportunity, a cause, an intuition about a new direction. A prayer group. What is it for you? How will you know? It will lead you to Mary and Joseph and their Son, and you will be home.

~Fr. John Muir, LPI

Eucharistic Revival Reflection

“Oh, how sweet a joy it is to remain with faith and tender devotion before the Eucharist, and converse familiarly with Jesus Christ, who is there for the express purpose of listening to and graciously hearing those who pray to him.”

~St. Alphonsus de Ligouri

Pick up your free book in the vestibules: Beautiful Eucharist

Copies are still available in the church vestibules.

On Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, as a gift to you, we handed out free copies of the book, Beautiful Eucharist, which contains insightful reflections on the Eucharist—the real presence of Jesus Christ— by prominent Catholics. It’s a timely gift during this year of Eucharistic Revival.

Step Into the Light

How strange it is to think that, if not for Herod’s directions, the Magi would not have known where to find Jesus. They were not Jews, they knew nothing of the old prophecies. It was Herod who convened the scholars. It was Herod who pointed the way — for ulterior motives, certainly, but nonetheless, this is the part he played. It was Herod who made the Epiphany possible.

“Nations shall walk by Your light, and kings by Your shining radiance,” writes the prophet (Isaiah 60:3). A king may keep to the shadows, suspicious of the light — he may foolishly imagine he can snatch it from the sky to keep as his own possession, and, upon finding the light cannot be governed, grow to loathe it, and even seek to extinguish it once and for all.

However, his grand designs will come to nothing because there is no king so powerful that he can see in the dark and even a man like Herod — a man so jealous that he sought to kill God — cannot prevent the breaking of day.

The Epiphany marks the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. It is a celebration of truth reaching places it was not expected to reach, of brightness illuminating corners of the world long ago consigned to shadow. It is a reminder that the battle has already been won; the night is over. All that remains is for us to decide: will we step into the light?

“See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.” — Isaiah 60:2

Our Winter Bible Study Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come

During our recent studies about the Eucharist, the Book of Revelation was referenced so often that we decided we need to delve into this fascinating and misunderstood book of the Bible.

Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates, intimidates or confuses people more than Revelation, yet relatively few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective.

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing eleven-session study program that shows how the Kingdom established by Christ in His Church is intimately connected with the Kingdom of Heaven. In this study, we will pull back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation, discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean, see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the “end times” and explore the Church’s teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment, understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, His spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass.

In fact, after this study, you will understand why the Book of Revelation may very well be the easiest book of the Bible to understand.

Our Revelation study will begin on Wednesday, January 10 and will run through Saturday, March 23 with study groups on these days:

New! →

- Monday evenings at 7pm beginning tomorrow, January 8 (Classroom 1)

REGISTER NOW FOR OUR Winter Alpha Dinner & Film Series

“Come and See” what the Alpha experience is all about

Our Information Dinner will be this Tuesday, January 9 at 6:30pm

Reserve your seat at <https://tinyurl.com/SJA-ALPHA>

If you've experienced an Alpha Dinner & Film Series, you know what a wonderful opportunity it provides for building community, forming friendships, understanding our personal relationships with Jesus and growing closer to God.

Alpha is for everyone! Alpha creates a space where you can be excited to come (even bring your friends, neighbors, and co-workers) to have a conversation about life, faith, meaning ... and Jesus.

Why Alpha?

In a world of isolation, anonymity, and keyboard warriors, Alpha offers a space for honest and judgment-free conversations about life's biggest questions. Everyone is welcome, and no questions are off-limits.

Alpha creates a space where you can be excited to bring your friends, neighbors, and co-workers to have a conversation about life, faith, meaning ... and Jesus.

Alpha is a 10-week course (with a special Saturday together) that includes a film and exciting dialog. Each session looks at a different question designed to inspire stimulating conversation.

Alpha gives you (and your guests) an opportunity to encounter Jesus in a life-changing way ... and to be empowered to play a part in each other's journeys.

There's no pressure, no follow-up and no charge; just an open, informal and honest space to explore life's big questions together.

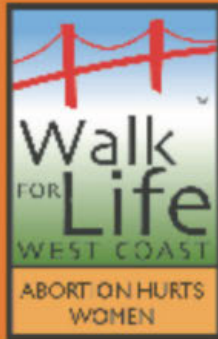

To learn more, watch the short videos at sjasr.org/Alpha.

Come and see!
