3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Adults: In last week's Gospel, we heard Jesus say, "Come and see." This week, we hear of Simon and Andrew, James and John, abandoning their nets to follow Jesus. How they must have been attracted and moved by His call! In your life, when have you abandoned an interest, a habit, a hobby, your "personal time" or even a job to follow Christ? How did that response change your life?

Children: If someone like Jesus, someone of faith, called or challenged you to follow God, how would you respond? Are you open to God's call in your life?

Annual contribution letters go out at the end of January

For those who have donated more than $250 to the parish this year, your contribution statement will be emailed to you by the end of January. If we don't have your email address on file, we'll send your contribution letter via US mail. You can also log into your Realm profile and upload a copy of your statement after February 1st.

If you are currently using online giving and no longer wish to receive the parish envelopes, please email at parishoffice@siasr.org

Repentance and truth...

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable—lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first but soon reality snaps back, and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie, I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins His ministry by proclaiming: “Repent!” We tend to think it means “stop doing bad things,” but it doesn't—it literally means “go beyond the mind you have.” Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, “I'm done lying,” and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, “I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words...” Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous, rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

~Fr. John Muir, LPI

Update in worship practices from Bishop Michael Barber: Kneeling During Mass

The General Instruction for the Roman Missal for the United States, No 43, states that "In the dioceses of the United States of America, they should kneel beginning after the singing or recitation of the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) until after the Amen of the Eucharistic Prayer, except when prevented on occasion by ill health, or for reasons of lack of space, of the large number of people present, or for another reasonable cause The faithful kneel after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God); unless the Diocesan Bishop determines otherwise."

I understand it had been the policy in our diocese set by a previous bishop to remain standing following the Lamb of God. However, I see no valid reason for us to diverge from the common practice of the Church in the United States.

Therefore, I ask that in our diocese we join the rest of the faithful in our country in kneeling after the Lamb of God in order to prepare ourselves reverently for reception of Holy Communion.

Following reception of Holy Communion, each person may stand, sit or kneel as they choose, until the priest asks everyone to stand for the Prayer After Communion.

These policies are to be considered Normative and must be observed by Ash Wednesday, February 14, 2024.

Yours fraternally in Christ,

The Most Reverend Michael C Barber, S.J.
Bishop of Oakland

Our Winter Bible Study

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is underway!

During our recent studies about the Eucharist, the Book of Revelation was referenced so often that we decided we need to delve into this fascinating and misunderstood book of the Bible.

In fact, after this study, you will understand why the Book of Revelation may very well be the easiest book of the Bible to understand.

Let us know if you would like to join us! We have five study groups each week:

- Monday evenings at 7pm (Classroom 1)
- Wednesday mornings at 9:45am (Lower Conference Room and zoom)
- Wednesday evenings at 7pm (zoom only)
- Thursday evenings at 7pm (Lower Conference Room only)
- Saturday mornings at 8:30am (zoom only)

PREPARE FOR SUNDAY MASS

at 7pm on Friday nights in the Lower Conference Room

Join us on Friday evenings from 7-8:30 pm when we meet in-person to prepare for the weekend's Mass by viewing videos from Dr. Brant Pitre that will deepen our understanding of the readings we will hear at Mass each week, blossom our understanding of the Gospels and enhance our relationships with Jesus.

All are welcome! Just drop in or RSVP to Email at mbehraz@gmail.com.

LAST CHANCE TO JOIN OUR Winter Alpha Dinner & Film Series

“Come and See” what the Alpha experience is all about

Tuesday, January 23, is the last gathering at which we welcome newcomers

Write to Rosemarie NOW to let us know you're coming:
RMcKenney@sjasr.org

If you've experienced an Alpha Dinner & Film Series, you know what a wonderful opportunity it provides for building community, forming friendships, understanding our personal relationships with Jesus and growing closer to God.

Alpha is for everyone! Alpha creates a space where you can be excited to come (even bring your friends, neighbors, and co-workers) to have a conversation about life, faith, meaning ... and Jesus.

Why Alpha?

In a world of isolation, anonymity, and keyboard warriors, Alpha offers a space for honest and judgment-free conversations about life's biggest questions. Everyone is welcome, and no questions are off-limits.

Alpha creates a space where you can be excited to bring your friends, neighbors, and co-workers to have a conversation about life, faith, meaning ... and Jesus.

Alpha is a 10-week course (with a special Saturday together) that includes a film and exciting dialog. Each session looks at a different question designed to inspire stimulating conversation.

Alpha gives you (and your guests) an opportunity to encounter Jesus in a life-changing way ... and to be empowered to play a part in each other's journeys.

There's no pressure, no follow-up and no charge, just an open, informal and honest space to explore life's big questions together.

To learn more, watch the short videos at sjasr.org/Alpha.

Come and see!

For more information or to RSVP, contact Rosemarie at RMcKenney@sjasr.org

Gospel Reading

Mark 1:14-20

Jesus calls the fishermen, Simon and Andrew, James and John, to be his disciples.

Family Connection

Today's Gospel describes how Jesus called his first disciples and the immediacy with which these men dropped everything to follow Him. We can only begin to imagine what Jesus' presence must have been like to invoke such a response in these first disciples. While a few of us might relate to such a radical conversion, many of us would find such a sudden change in ourselves or in another person unsettling. There are few things for which we would willingly drop everything and yet this is the immediacy with which these first disciples responded to Jesus. These first disciples were willing to drop everything in order to make Jesus and the Kingdom of God the most important things in their lives.

Gather as a family and talk about circumstances in which you have had to "drop everything." (the call to pick up a sick child from school, the cry of a hurt or angry child) How did you feel about having to change your plans in each of these situations? How do we feel when someone asks us to drop everything to help him or her? For many of us, it is not easy to drop everything to respond to the needs of another.

Read today's Gospel, Mark 1:14–20. Invite your family to imagine what Jesus' presence and invitation to these first followers must have been like that they responded by leaving their livelihoods to become His disciples. How might our lives change if we understood the Kingdom of God to be as important and immediate in our lives? Ask God to help you experience the Kingdom of God with such immediacy. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.
