Adults: Today, we see one of Jesus' primary interactions with people involves healing. In a way, we all need healing of some sort. When and where do you find yourself coming to Christ for healing?

Children: Wherever Jesus goes, He shares His gift of healing with all who ask. What a kind Savior we have! Since we are also called to be like Jesus, we can visit or pray for those who are sick, too. Is there anyone who is sick or lonely that you could visit or pray for this week?

Gathered for healing

Maybe I’m weird, but I like spending time in doctor’s offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It’s refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. “...they brought to Him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door.” The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing His healing rays. These blessed souls can’t fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it, but they have found in Him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It’s the Church, isn’t it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can’t fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It’s nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place. ~ Fr. John Muir ©LPI

Our Winter Bible Study

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is underway!

During our recent studies about the Eucharist, the Book of Revelation was referenced so often that we decided we needed to delve into this fascinating and misunderstood book of the Bible.

In fact, after this study, you will understand why the Book of Revelation may very well be the easiest book of the Bible to understand.

Let us know if you would like to join us! We have five study groups each week:

- Monday evenings at 7pm (Classroom 1)
- Wednesday mornings at 9:45am (Lower Conference Room and zoom)
- Wednesday evenings at 7pm (zoom only)
- Thursday evenings at 7pm (Lower Conference Room only)
- Saturday mornings at 8:30am (zoom only)

A Biblical Walk through Christ's Passion

*Monday evenings at 7pm beginning
February 12
in-home and via zoom*

Follow Jesus to Calvary

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, our No Greater Love study will take us on a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. We will explore the last hours of Christ's life, walking step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary.

Every step of the way, we will be guided by Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism and historical context that shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death, giving us a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for each of us ... we will grow closer to Jesus than we ever have before.

You can join us in-person, virtually or in spirit, studying independently. If you join us, you can participate by simply watching the videos with us each week and engaging in our weekly dialog ... or you can go deeper by purchasing the study set, which includes a study guide, companion book and online access to the videos.

You can purchase your study materials at <https://ascensionpress.com/products/no-greater-love-study-pack>.
