WORLD MARRIAGE DAY
ASH WEDNESDAY:
FEBRUARY 14

6th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." - Mk 1:40-41

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Adults: The healed leper disobeyed Jesus' command to remain silent, and as a result, Jesus had to stay outside towns and in "deserted places." How do you deal with people in your life who disappoint or frustrate you?

Children: It was compassion that moved the heart of Jesus to heal the leper. He worked this miracle because the leper, in his faith, boldly asked Him to. Do you have that same confidence when approaching God with your needs?

Gathered for healing

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful (please don't tell anyone). I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it, or maybe it's exposed to all: A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us. ~ Fr. John Muir ©LPI

Christ's Passion*

*Monday evenings @ 7pm beginning
THIS MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12
in-home and via zoom*

Follow Jesus to Calvary

Filmed on location in the Holy Land, our No Greater Love study will take us on a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. We will explore the last hours of Christ's life, walking step-by-step with Jesus from the garden of Gethsemane to Mount Calvary.

Every step of the way, we will be guided by Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, biblical symbolism and historical context that shed light on the mystery of Christ's suffering and death, giving us a deeper understanding and appreciation of God's immeasurable and unconditional love for each of us ... we will grow closer to Jesus than we ever have before.

You can join us in-person, virtually or in spirit, studying independently. If you join us, you can participate by simply watching the videos with us each week and engaging in our weekly dialog ... or you can go deeper by purchasing the study set, which includes a study guide, companion book and online access to the videos.

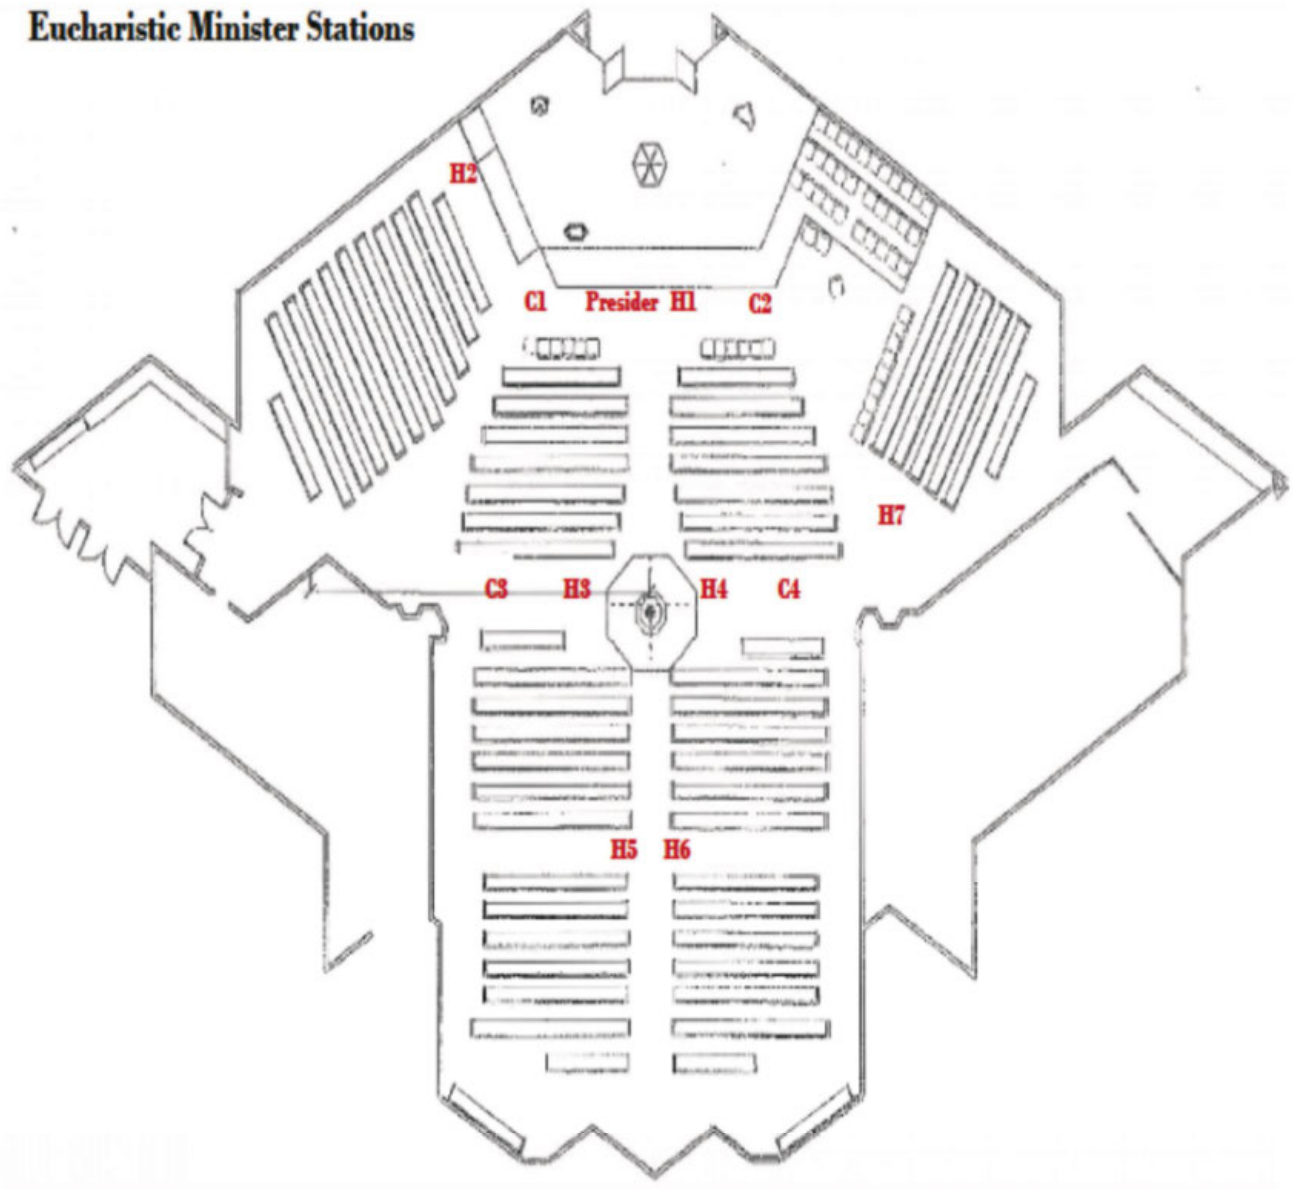

You can participate by simply attending each week's gathering or you can also prepare each week by ordering study materials. Go to <https://ascensionpress.com/products/no-greater-love-study-pack>.
