He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Adults: The disciples of this gospel do not encounter the risen Jesus but rather see hints of what has happened. What hints and whispers of the Resurrection do you see in your own life?

Children: The story of Christ's sacrifice, the meaning of His mercy and compassion, lives on in all Christians. Strengthened by Christ in the Eucharist, how do you share the good news of the risen Jesus with others?

An Easter Message from Fr. Johnson

Dear St. Joan of Arc Families,

In the name of our Deacons and staff, I wish you and your loved ones the Peace and Joy of Easter! Jesus Christ is risen! Alleluia! I pray that you may have the Easter faith – the faith that helps all of us to find hope in the Risen Christ that from the “dark places” or painful experiences of our lives, He will raise us up.

The Gospel on Easter Morning begins with the words “Early in the morning while it was still dark...” In the darkness of the Easter morning, some disciples met the Risen Christ. Two thousand years later, as followers of this same Christ, we are called to look for Christ and transformation in “dark places.” Many of these “dark places” are familiar to us: like the death of a loved one, loss of health, loss of love and friendship, loss of job, loss of meaning, and loss of faith. For many others, the “dark places” might be an aging parent, caring continuously for a sick loved one with little or no support, fighting an addiction of some sort, conflict and stress in the workplace, and so on. I pray that, in the same spirit of Mary, Peter and John, we visit that “dark tomb” and believe that good can come from it.

For me, the important question is not so much “Do I believe that God raised up Jesus 2,000 years ago” but rather, “Do I believe that the same God can raise up someone like you and me?” The existential question is not so much whether God empowered Jesus to come forth from the dark place of death, but whether you and I can believe that God can empower us to come forth from our dark place of pain, sin and suffering. Hopefully, our answer is a resounding “yes!” If so, we have Easter faith. Let us place our hands in God’s hand and trust that God can raise us from our dark places just as Jesus was raised to new life. Amen.

“We are Easter people, and Alleluia is our song”!!!

Fr. Johnson Abraham
