"This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again." - Jn 10:17

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Adults: Where do you most clearly recognize Jesus in your life?
What makes your heart stir with recognition that you are known and loved?

Children: What does the image of Jesus as a good shepherd mean to you?

2024 Bishop’s Ministries Appeal

The Annual Bishop’s Ministries Appeal 2024 kicked off last weekend. Our theme for 2024, Many Ministries, One Church, is a reminder that each of us is an essential member of the Body of Christ that is our Church. Our charitable works are strengthened when we work together and when we work toward heaven.

This year, our Parish goal is the same as 2023: $98,000. Last year, we reached 88.97% of our goal. This year, I am confident we can reach 100% of our goal.

Through our collective support of the Bishop’s Ministries Appeal, we strengthen the Body of Christ and sustain her many charitable works that serve the spiritual and other needs of all those within and beyond our parish boundaries.

~ Fr. Johnson Abraham

Laying His life down for us...

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal’s wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn’t care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don’t know, but I do know if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog (no offense Libby).

How passionately Jesus wants us to know Him and His willingness to die for us! This week He says, “I know my own and my own know me,” and “I lay down my life for the sheep.” Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and He has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and His saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about His love. He never ceases to lay down His life for us.

~Fr. John Muir, ©LPI

St. Vincent de Paul Conference thanks you!

The members of the St. Vincent de Paul conference of our parish are very grateful to all St. Joan of Arc parishioners for your generous contributions to our April 4, 5th Sunday collection. Because of your strong financial support, we're able to assist our Neighbors in Need with food, gasoline, utilities, and other necessary expenses. They join us in our prayers of thanksgiving for you.

We also thank you for donating your gently used clothing and household items on our "Bundle Sunday" weekend. Your donations have been taken to our thrift stores in Pleasant Hill and Brentwood where they will be sold to benefit our works of charity.

Congratulations to those who made their First Holy Communion on Sunday, April 14 at the Noon Mass:

Luca Adornato, Alexander Espejo, Ava Espejo, Zoey Medel and Ashlynn Suby

Creation Care Corner:

Family Creation Activity (EarthFest this Sunday!)

Out of God's love for us comes the gift of creation. Each part of creation is connected to every other part. To help children begin to understand this complex concept, the Peacemakers suggest this family activity:

1. Each family member should select one of God's creatures (i.e. A bird, an insect, a mammal or a fish.)
 - Do research on this creature.
 - What kind of food does it require?
 - Does it sleep at night or during the day?
 - How does it survive predators, weather extremes, food supply issues, etc.?
 - How does it find shelter?
 - How does it care for its young? Do the "parents" stay with the young to feed and teach them at first or are they on their own from the very beginning?
 - How is it connected to other members of God's creation?
 - What do you think are its most unique characteristics?
2. At a family meeting, share your findings with each other.
3. End with a prayer of thanksgiving for all of God's creation and perhaps a pledge to protect and care for it in your life.

Next Blood Drive: Saturday, May 11

Our next Red Cross/Knights of Columbus Blood Drive is on Saturday, May 11, 8am-2 pm. To make an appointment, log on to RedCrossBlood.org; enter code: KCSANRAMON

You're invited to attend our next meeting for our Caring Circles™ for Dementia/Alzheimer's group on Friday, April 26 from 11 a.m. to 12

Noon in the Lower Conference Room. Please note change of location, from MPR to Lower Conference Room—look for the welcome banner.

Caring Circles™ provides a safe space for sharing experiences, exchanging resources, and offering emotional support, and aims to enhance the quality of life for those caring for loved ones through understanding, empathy, and education. All are welcome!

Pray for the recently baptized

We recently welcomed to our parish community the newly baptized:

Rafael Benjamin Becerra

We ask that you pray for Rafael, his parents and godparents, as they grow in faith together.

JOIN ONE OF OUR SPRING BIBLE STUDIES

RSVP to RMckenney@sjasr.org

JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE

Tuesdays at 7pm in the Lower Conference Room (began April 9)

Anchored in the life of Christ as presented in the Gospels ... and filmed in the Holy Land ... we will explore the entirety of Jesus' life — Who He is, what He is really like, what He taught, what He did for us and our salvation ... and what all of this means for us as Catholics today.

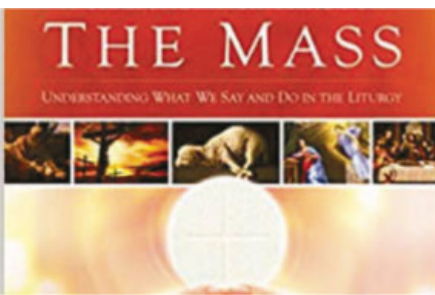

This study has an optional workbook and companion book that can be purchased at Ascension Press: <https://ascensionpress.com/products/jesus-the-way-the-truth-and-the-life-workbook>

WHEN YOU PRAY: A CLEAR PATH TO A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Mondays at 7pm in Classroom 1 and Saturdays at 8:30am via zoom: (began Monday April 8) and begins again on Saturday, May 3

Prayer is important...but it can be challenging! Inspired by the real example of the saints, we will learn how to pray with the same consistency, trust, peace, and passion that led to deep transformation in their souls. This study has an optional workbook and companion book available: <https://ascensionpress.com/products/when-you-pray-a-clear-path-to-a-deeper-relationship-with-god-workbook-only>

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

Thursdays at 7pm in the Lower Conference Room began, April 4

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear Him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive His Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. This study has an optional workbook and companion book that can be purchased at Ascension Press: <https://ascensionpress.com/products/a-biblical-walk-through-the-mass-study-set-10th-anniversary-edition>
